WINGO BANK.

TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED DURING A CHANGE OF

The Cashiers—Other Graves County Notes of Interest to the People.

Yesterday's Maxfield Messenger.

The bank of Wingo closed its doors last Friday, when the directors decided advisable during a change of cashiers. There was some dissatisfaction among the directors with the management of Cashier J. M. Brann, and a movement was started to get another cashier.

As stated in the Messenger, Judge D. H. Stanford, of the City National bank, went down last Friday on the invitation of the authorities of the Wingo bank to look over the affairs of the institution; and as a result of his investigation, Mr. Brann vacated the position of cashier, and Jas. Tartt was selected to succeed him.

The bank opened up again for business this morning, and Ralph Stanford, who has been in the banking business in Louisville, went down this morning to assist the new cashier until he gets familiar with the routine of the work. Mr. Brann has moved his family to Fulton, where he formerly resided. The bank stock is owned by citizens of Wingo and Fulton, and the capital is $15,000. The bank has been running about two years.

Pastor Webb, of the C. P. church, has divided the city into eight districts with reference to his church, and appointed two leaders, or overseers, who are expected to work up better interest among the members and others in the Sunday school, prayer meeting and church services. Each district is to hold four fellowship meetings a year, and each member in the district is expected to visit each other member at least twice a year in the interest of the church. A union fellowship meeting will be held at the church once a year.

This is a new plan the pastor has originated, and will doubtless bring gratifying results.

The corn crib of Tom Short, a few miles from Wingo, burned last night, under circumstances which suggested arson, and he went to Fulton for blood hounds this morning to see if a trail could be found. He lost about thirty barrels of corn in the fire, which was past control when discovered.

Rose Dowdy filed a novel damage suit today against J. S. Perkins and C. Jack Dowdy, asking judgment for $1,000. She says they had her wrongfully arrested, on the 15th inst., on a writ of lunacy, from which she was discharged on investigation, and she was humiliated and otherwise injured in feeling to the moment stated. Crutchfield and Palmer are her attorneys.

CORBIN FEUDISTS TRIAL

Notorious Murderer Thought to Be Freed Gave Pursuers the Slip Last Night.

GIBSON'S CASE UP AT CATLETTSBURG

Catlettsburg, Ky., Jan. 30.—The case of Wm. Gibson, who brutally murdered a little step daughter, by slaying a red hot poker down her throat, is up for trial. It is proving hard work to get a jury. The talk of lynching is not so rife, now that Gibson is before court.

Williamsburg, Ky., Jan. 30.—The Corbin feudist case is on trial. The accused are charged with murder. There is interest and an undercurrent of feeling which needs but a kindling to grow serious. The court house is being guarded.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 30.—Sheriff Andy Hughes, of Claiborne county, Tennessee, who, with a large posse, had Lewis Myers, an alleged desperate Virginia criminal, who has five killings to his credit, surrounded in a log house on Taggart's creek, twelve miles from here, let Myers get away. Twenty-two hundred dollars reward has been offered for the arrest of Myers. Myers says he will not surrender. Sheriff Hughes says he will be taken dead or alive. A posse is in pursuit of Myers.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The new judicial bill for Kentucky, which divides the state into two districts, has finally been reported by the senate committee. The bill provides for court at Paducah on the second Monday and the third day in November.

MR. BARNHILL'S WILL.

HE LEAVES ALL HIS PROPERTY TO HIS MOTHER.

A copy of the last will of the late Mr. Will P. Barnhill, Jr., who died in Texas and was buried at Savannah, Tenn., was filed for probate in the county court here today. His father, Mr. W. P. Barnhill, Sr., is appointed executor.

STAMP DEPUTY.

MR. C. C. ROSE IS APPOINTED TO AN IMPORTANT INSURANCE POSITION.

Mr. C. C. Rose, secretary of the local board of insurance underwriters, has been appointed stamp deputy for the Kentucky and Tennessee board of underwriters for Paducah, effective February 1. This is an office of great importance and it is the first time Paducah has been furnished with such a representative of the board.

This position carries with it a salary of about $1,500 a year, and the duties of the deputy are to inspect all daily reports of local insurance agents before they are forwarded to their respective companies, and if rates and risks are found satisfactory, will receive the stamp of the deputy and be forwarded by him to the proper company, instead of by the agent himself, as heretofore. Another important duty of the stamp deputy is to inspect buildings, decide questions of rates and such things. The expenses of the place are borne by the companies doing business in a place.

A CHURCH

SELECTED BY WILLIAM DALTON AS A SUITABLE PLACE

To Break Into—Arrested at Noon for Breaking Into the Broadway Methodist Church.

Billy Dalton, a white man about 28 years of age, was arrested about noon today on a charge of breaking into the Broadway M. E. church, at Seventh and Broadway.

Edward Reynolds, the colored janitor, claims that a few days ago he had some clothing stolen from the church. Today he caught Dalton there with a coat, vest, brush and huckle lamp he had stolen today. He is alleged to have gained entrance by breaking in, and the property belonging to Reynolds he was arrested by Chas. Gang Overseer Joe Woods and Assistant A. Townsend, and Reynolds swore out a warrant against him for house breaking.

The case is set for tomorrow morning before Judge Sanders.

A SAD DEATH.

MR. CHARLES GLASS SUCCEUMS TO PNEUMONIA

Mr. Charles Glass, aged 27, a well known grocer in the employ of Mr. Louis Clark, died about noon today at his home on South Eighth, from pneumonia, after a week's illness. He was born in Illinois, where his parents, who are now here, reside, but had lived in Paducah for many years, and formerly with his brother, owned a grocery at Third and Jackson streets.

He was married about a year ago to Miss Merrick, who survives him. He also leaves a brother, Engineer Dan Glass.

The deceased was a worthy young man, liked by all who knew him, and many friends will regret to learn of his death.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Christian church, Rev. W. H. Pinkerton officiating. The burial will be at Oak Grove, near the auspices of Mangum lodge, L. O. O. F.

Gons. J. F. Wale and Wm. Ludlow are to go to Manila, probably to relieve Gons. Lloyd Wheaton and J. O. Bates.

GAMESTERS FINED TODAY

One Who Ran Away Was Stuck For $50 and Costs—Several Offenders Were Held.

Judge Sanders had a big court this morning, and several offenders were held over on felony charges. Quite a concourse of spectators was present to see the "dead game" sports surprised in the midst of a fascinating game at the Inkenio club Sunday night. Four pleaded guilty and three were fined $20 and costs and another, who has left town, was fined $50 and costs. No other warrants have yet been issued.

Robert Hamilton, colored, who was running the crap game on South Ninth street Sunday night, was presented for setting up a game, a felony charge, and said he wanted to plead guilty. The court heard the evidence and the case was so plain he was held over in the sum of $150, and in default of bond went to jail.

J. C. Lowe and Chas. Hicks, the young "con" men arrested Saturday night for "short changing" at Ponge's clothing store and Schroeder's grocery, waived examination on two charges of obtaining money by false pretenses and were held in the sum of $200 each in each case. Ernest Elmendorf, who is jointly charged with them pleaded not guilty and the case is set for Saturday.

Joe Sene and Tobo Williams, who had a fight on Lower Court street last yesterday afternoon, were fined $20 and costs and $10 and costs respectively.

Annie Holland, colored, for being drunk and disorderly last night, was fined $3 and costs.

Ed Moore, colored, charged with cutting Jim Miller's pocket and robbing him of $3.95 at a Second street saloon, was held over in default of bond, and was remanded to jail.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

E. N. Culp, aged 20, a farmer, and Miss Alice Roark, aged 17, of the county, were licensed to marry today. The wedding will take place tomorrow.

C. E. Randolph, aged 30, of Ballard county, and Miss Lucy Pearl Terry, aged 19, will also be married tomorrow.

THE WEATHER.

The weather predictions are for fair and colder weather. The mercury went to 28 last night, but is expected to go to 12 or 14 above, by morning.

Governor Sayre's report just made to the legislature shows that $1,938,414 were contributed to Galveston and vicinity because of the storm last September. Every nation under the sun contributed to the sum.

LOWER ASSESSMENT.

THE STATE BOARD REDUCES THE L. C. S. ASSESSMENT IN M'CRACKEN.

The assessment of the Illinois Central railroad on its property in McCracken county has been received by County Clerk Graham from the state auditor and shows quite a difference between this year and last year's assessment.

This year the total assessment in the county is on $559,100, the amount levied on city $253,450. The Union Depot company is assessed on $20,400, while last year it was assessed on $50,000.

Last year the assessment in the county was on $561,850, and the city's portion, on $304,120.

The reduction is made in the property outside of the millage. The rate on trackage is greater than last year, being this year $56,430 millage. All other property is assessed at $199,000. City Tax Collector Krans believes the railroad hospital and Huntington Row, assessed at $15,000 each last year, were omitted through error.

Major Lang thinks the change was made because of the removal of the passenger depot and the conversion of the former passenger depot into a freight house.

CIRCUIT COURT.

DAVIS CASE WENT TO THE JURY AT NOON TODAY.

The damage suit of G. W. Davis against the Cokesburg Co. for $2,000 was given to the jury at noon today, after a trial lasting several days.

The suit of Rachael Davis, colored, against the Paducah Railway and Light company, for $2,000 damages for injuries, is now on trial.

In the case of W. A. Gardner against A. S. Miller judgment was rendered for $80.20 against Naner J. Miller and the case was continued up to A. S. Miller.

TEMPORARILY INSANE.

CHARLES SEXTON HAD TO BE COMMITTED TO JAIL.

Charles Sexton, the well known bartender, has been temporarily insane for the past several days, and was last night committed to jail to prevent his injuring himself, or some one else, having tried to jump out a second story window.

As his trouble is thought to be temporary, he will probably not be tried for lunacy. His brother, from Alabama, who is here, will probably take him to Alabama as soon as he recovers.

EXTRA SESSION

Declared Openly by President and Friends Only Avertable by Congress Doing its Work.

TWO LIVES LOST IN A FIRE

The Southern Railway Company Comes Into Control of the Mobile and Ohio Road.

BRUTE IN DANGER OF LYNCHING

Washington, Jan. 30.—The cabinet Tuesday discussed such information as was at hand bearing on the provisions of the Cuban constitution and the opinion was expressed that the completed document would reach Washington about February 15, when it will be placed before congress. It is known the president regards prompt action in this matter as of very great importance and would not hesitate to call congress together in extra session to consider it, should it appear necessary. The need for prompt action on the Spooner Philippine bill is regarded as scarcely less urgent than the disposition of the Cuban constitution, and the statement is made on high authority that in the event of failure of either of these measures to receive the consideration of congress an extra session is almost inevitable.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The president will certainly call an extra session of congress if the work now before the body is not disposed of. This is the free expression of the president and those close to him.

New York, Jan. 30.—Two lives were lost and many had narrow escapes in a big fire here this morning. El Marshall, the war correspondent, who lost one leg in China, escaped from the building by sliding down a plank.

London, Jan. 30.—The heir apparent to the English throne has the German measles. He is not dangerously sick.

Truckee, Cal., Jan. 30.—John Leshon, while drunk, kicked his wife to death. His boots were covered with blood when he was captured. He will be lynched if not spirited away.

New York, Jan. 30.—The Southern railway has secured control of the Mobile and Ohio railroad. The control is just commenced.

ATTACK FEARED

On Royalty, By the Anarchists, When Queen Victoria's Funeral Takes Place Next Saturday

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES

Will Be Taken By the Selective Force of London and the Soldiers.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS ARRESTED

London Jan. 30.—The possibility of a wholesale attack by anarchists on royalty at the queen's funeral has not escaped the attention of Scotland Yard. It is a fact that more prominent royal persons will be gathered at Windsor next Saturday than at any time in many years, and the open threat of the "red" to dynamite the whole aggregation and himself as well is gotten.

The realization of this has startled them and they are now busy running suspicious characters out of the country. Suspected anarchists will be arrested on imaginary charges the night before the funeral.

The police are watching Malatesta, who disavows any intention of making an onslaught on royalty "en bloc" this week. He says organized anarchy is not responsible for the assassination of crowned heads in recent years and that murder is not their creed.

Incidentally he remarked that Cecil Rhodes not Edward VII. is king of England. Despite Malatesta's protestations Scotland Yard is taking no chances and will be within arms reach of Edward, the Kaiser, and all continental royalty, down to the obscurest prince.

The Georgia legislature recently voted down three bills that had been largely asked for by the women of the state—one raising the age of prohibition of girls from 10 to 12; one prohibiting the labor of children under 12 in factories, and one admitting young men to study in the State textile schools. This strange legislation has aroused much indignation among the women of Georgia.

The Sun has information that Mr. Harmon L. Sedberry, who is mentioned as the anti-primary candidate for county attorney of Livingston county, will accept the nomination on that ticket. The Sun has known Mr. Sedberry for several years. He is one of the brightest young lawyers in Western Kentucky. He is a staunch Republican, but has legions of friends in both parties in Livingston county. He campaigned in the county in '99 and 1900 and did excellent work for his party. He represented Livingston county in the Republican state convention at Lexington. He is the only feblecan lawyer that was ever admitted to the bar in Livingston county. Mr. Sedberry has been mentioned as a candidate for representative to represent Crittenden and Livingston county in the next general assembly of Kentucky. He will make a strong candidate and the Sun is pleased to see the anti machine element recognizing his worth.

THE TIP NUISANCE.

The Sun is pleased to note that a crusade is being waged in the east against the "tipping" of waiters and other employees of hotels. This nuisance has reached such a state of extortion that the traveling public has revolted and it is right they should. When a hotel charges from $3 to $3 a day it should pay its employees for their time and demand that the best of attention be given its patrons without further payments by them. It has gotten to be such a graft that the travelers are picking out the hotels that do not permit their employees accepting tips. A person doesn't object to paying for what he gets at a good hotel, but he does object to being "held up" by employees whose duty it is to serve his wants. If the hotels that don't permit their employees accepting tips will advertise the fact the others will soon follow their example, or be compelled to quit business.

Let the good work proceed. Let the hotels that are opposed to the graft post notices asking their patrons to assist them in breaking up the practice. They will find a willing response and hearty co-operation from a long

KIND OF HUSBAND I Should Choose For My Daughter.

HEALTH, UNSELFISHNESS AND EDUCATION.

(By Harriett Prescott Spofford.)

The only way in which with safety to all concerned a mother can help her daughter in the choice of a husband is when—having studied from birth the nature and needs of her daughter, and having confessed to herself that marriage is the best and happiest state—she looks about her for one whose qualities are those that shall ensure the welfare and happiness of her child; and then quietly and discreetly, and without putting her purpose in evidence, brings the two together, conscious that propriety is as potent as any other factor. Every mother has not only a right but a duty in relation to a child's marriage. You often hear a man of very moderate desert say that he requires in a wife virtue, birth, breeding, beauty, good nature, education, money and other superlative gifts, so why shall a mother be less demanding in behalf of her daughter? It will then go without saying that this husband of a sweet and innocent and carefully reared girl shall be a satisfactory specimen of the race, manly, brave and good to look upon. That means that he will have good health; and having good health he will have good nature, and good nature is very necessary to household happiness. If he loves his suffering public.

The tipping practice originated in Europe. There the employees work for nothing for the privilege of the tip, but this is not the case in the United States. Hotels pay their employees and should not permit this imposition upon their patrons. Many of them realize that as long as it is sanctioned they must resort to it to get respectful and prompt attention.

NEWS FROM KUTTAWA.

Mr. L. A. Hull, Jr., the Kuttawa druggist and superintendent of the Swayne Speke and Lumber company, who had his hands so severely burned just before Christmas by a lamp explosion, is nearly well, and will not lose the use of either hand, which will be good news to his many friends who feared he would be a cripple for life.

Mr. W. Y. Robertson and Miss Irene Krome, daughter of Mr. Ira Krome, were married Wednesday, at the home of the bride's father, near Kuttawa, Rev. Seay, of Kuttawa, officiating.

Ten years ago, when the crown prince of Japan was in his thirteenth year, his highness spent a summer at Putumanga, Ica. While out in the water one day the prince noticed a fisherman's boy of about the same age as himself, whose skill in swimming drew forth his admiration. The lowly youth, whose name was Yel, was presented to the prince, and these sprang up a friendship between the two. The highness was once more back at sea the other day on his wedding tour, and the prince thought of Yel. He wanted to see his old friend, and after a good deal of trouble, the order was conveyed to Yel, now grown a sturdy young man, but still poor and lowly, to delight the prince talked freely of the past and then allowed Yel to take leave of him loaded with various presents.

Observationsat Random

There are a great many phantasies among the various candidates for office, and although there are scores in the contest, the best of feeling seems to prevail, and when the aspirants meet they never fail to joke one another about their respective prospects.

The other day Attorney H. T. Light foot and Squire J. M. Erell, who were out in the brush canvassing in the interests of their respective candidacy for county judge, met.

"Hello, Dick," said the "squire."

"Well," returned the attorney, "that's one more than I've found for you."

"Yes, but the fellow I saw was one you'd got out of jail over in Illinois and can't vote," laughed the "squire" as he drove on.

Judge W. M. Best, formerly of Marshall county, enjoys a joke on himself as much as one on anybody else, and relates this one on himself.

One day a man called on him in fiction. The big lawyer had his office there, but his family and many of his relatives lived some distance in the country. The man wanted to secure his services to aid him in procuring a tavern license in the Pilot Oak section of the county.

"I'll tell you, Judge," he earnestly declared, "we certainly need something of the kind out there. The drummers come and there is no place for them to stay. And," he continued confidentially, "it's the best place in the county to sell whiskey. Why, it's in the very heart of the best country."

The judge began to smile at this powerful argument, and the expression on the man's face, as it dawned on him that he was addressing the mighty head of the local family himself, was amusing to see. But the tavern license was a short time afterwards granted.

A social note of interest in Paducah comes from New York. Mrs. Mabel Munro Faugan entertained on Thursday, the 24th inst., in honor of Miss Margaret MacIntyre, the Scottish Prima Donna, daughter of Major General MacIntyre, of Scotland, and a member of the Metropolitan Grand Opera company. She was assisted in receiving by Baroness Von Teuber, Miss Eugenia, Miss Nina Pictou and Miss Eugenia Clark, the latter of Paducah.

When it was learned that the Brookhill was grounded up at Stewart's Island, somebody arrested Capt. Joe Fowler down on Monkey Wrench corner and asked him when he would be off.

"Well, I don't know," grimly responded Captain Joe. "You never can tell about these things. Now when she left Paducah the bar was on the bar!"

It may be that these tramp stories have been told before, but the lady who relates them declares they are from her own individual experience.

A ragged specimen, huddled around to the back porch the other day and finding her engaged in some domestic duty obsequiously doffed his hat and said: "Lady, would you please give me some of your husband's old clothes. You can see for yourself that I need them worse than he does."

She was confused for a moment, but rather than confess that she was on old maid, she quickly replied, "My husband doesn't have old clothes."

It was only a day or two later that another hobo called at the same back door.

"Mistress," he began as soon as she appeared, "could you please give me poor, penitence unfortunate a dime?"

She gazed at his tattered garments a moment, and her heart melted in pity.

"Certainly," she replied. "Can you change half a dollar?"
